

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Enhanced Learning Educational Services is paying for the establishment of a free-standing library at the Wat Chi Kreng Primary School in the Siem Reap province of Cambodia. The library will be built in the traditional Khmer style, and will include child friendly furniture, flooring, shelving, maps, puzzles, games, and of course, books. Room to Read (the amazing group that organises this) will stock the library with English and Khmer books totaling 500-1,000 over 3 years, and will provide 3 years of library management training to a designated teacher.

Wat Chi Kreng Primary School is located in a poor rural area in Siem Reap where families rely on subsistence farming for their livelihood. After this library is built 664 children (in a 6 room school!) will have access to a new colorful and engaging reading room.

WE NEED YOU TO WRITE A LETTER TO STUDENTS IN WAT CHI KRENG PRIMARY SCHOOL IN CAMBODIA!

The library should be ready sometime in 2008 and we would love for students to write letters to the students there so they can use them to practise their English. Just write a simple letter 'Hi, My name is....' and just talk about yourself, your life and your interests. Maybe draw some pictures. Even better if you added something fun to the page. Decorating the page with photos from magazines, or pictures or drawings along with a simple letter would be great. Then just pass the letters to your Year Coordinator or post the letters direct to PO Box 9 Neutral Bay NSW 2089. We would like to send each of the 664 students at this Cambodian school a letter (even if it is not personally addressed) from a student in Australia that they could keep and take home and use to practise their English.
